Welcome to the September 2025 update from your support team in Children's, Youth and Intergenerational Discipleship for the United Reformed Church.

Dear friends,

It is all change at the start of the school year for many of our children and young people—I am sure you are busy supporting them through their new challenges and opportunities. It is also the start of a new season for us as a team, following the review of staffing at the Offices of General Assembly. We are now part of a much bigger team covering justice, lay learning, evangelism, ecumenism, intercultural and global church as well as our particular focus on children, young people and intergenerational discipleship. This brings new challenges as we adjust to being a smaller team, and new opportunities to work collaboratively across different areas of church life. Pray for us as we pray for you in our shared task of enabling children and young people to play their part in the mission of God.

Children's, Youth and Intergenerational Resources for Advent

Whether you are involved with junior church, messy church, community events or intergenerational worship these resources should help support and guide your advent celebrations.

Under fives's praise service: A pick and mix selection of songs, stories, prayers, crafts and more to help shape an under five's praise service.

Youth service: A range of tools and suggestions to help plan and run an advent youth service. Order of service template included.

Advent trail and outdoor worship ideas: This resource would work well whether you have a large grassy area, a small tarmacked space or an indoor space.

Café church: A ready made café church service with songs, activities, creative response, discussion and prayer.

Make your own nativity set: 11 illustrations to print out on card, cut out and colour to build your own nativity set.

CHILDREN, YOUNG PEOPLE AND YOUNG ADULTS MAKING THE HEADLINES IN THE UNITED REFORMED CHURCH

Three worthy Lundie award winners, each recognised for rather different but equally valuable contributions to the life of the Church.

12 year old Abbie's gentle warmth and positive energy helps encourage those she supports within the children and youth work. 19 year old Dan utilises his love of and skill of organ playing across two different churches. 14 year old James supports the Messy Church team, junior church team and along with his Grandad, helps facilitate the technology on a Sunday morning. Congratulations to them all!

Le Grand Kiff

Three URC Youth members joined more than 700 young people at Le Grand Kiff, a youth camp run by the United Protestant Church of France.

Alongside friends from Normandy, Korede Kassim (Wales), Laurel Banks (East Midlands) and Elliot Winterbottom (West Midlands) spent four days worshipping, debating, playing games and exploring the theme "Respire, Espere" (Breathe, Hope) with young people from across Europe and beyond. The youngsters were supported by Jamie Laird (Wessex Synod), Helen Everard (Minister Fleet URC) and Helen Laird (CYDO West Midlands).

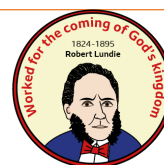

Do you know anyone 25 or under who is playing their part in the mission of God and deserves recognition?

Why not nominate them for the Lundie Memorial Award?
